1. The Project Section of the Ministry of Electrical Energy has been placed under the control of three Soviet counsellors.
2. The Minister Gaston Marin has been threatened with disgrace. He was ordered to go to Moscow where he was threatened because of the inefficiency in his department.
3. On his return he gave the order to his Director General, Engineer Bercovici, to revise all the electrification projects in the country, and to adopt them to the new directives which he had received in the Soviet Union. The greatest efforts of electrification in the country have been made in upper Moldavia.
